Lee City.

Clay Rose sold Abner Moore a house and lot in town a few days ago.

D. N. Wells and R. F. Anderson took the contract to build our school house for $345.

Rev. W. L. Lacy and others have been holding a protracted meeting at the Walters school house.

Mrs. Rose Patrick and Miss Laura Patrick of Johnson fork, visited James Arnett Saturday and Sunday.

"Squire J. H. Sebastian, S. Miles Nickell, Woodson Little and H. O. Shockey, of Dayboro, were in town Saturday.

George Washington Dunn has been absent from town about two weeks, and the sheriff has been hunting for him.

The sheriff sold a yoke of oxen belonging to A. J. Walters Saturday, to satisfy an execution, to Clay Rose for $30.00.

Logan Fallon, of Gilmore, and Dr. W. O. B. Ramey, of Frenchburg, were the guests of Oscar Fallon and wife two days last week.

A. J. Walters is moving to Hunting creek, Breathitt county, and will move the steam mill he bought from A. J. Dykes there in a few days.

Mrs. G. B. Rose is very sick. Dr. Tipton is attending her, but we hope she will soon be well, for she sent your scribe a nice lot of honey for Christmas.

We can get plenty of green apples to eat, for B. F. Rose, near town, holed up about 175 bushels last fall. Mr. Rose is one of the best farmers in this county.

D. N. Wells and R. F. Anderson have the mill fever yet, for we learn they have bought another steam mill on Kane creek, Breathitt county. We predict a success for them, as they are both energetic men.

Old Aunt Frankie Kash, of Gilmore creek, walked to see her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Fallon, of our town, last Thursday and returned home Sunday. She is 75 years old, and can walk as glib as a ten-year-old girl.

Miss America Wilson was the lucky one to guess the number (which was 23) that drew the sugar bowl at Oscar Fallon's store. For each package of prize coffee bought the purchaser was entitled to a guess, and she bought only one package. What will be the next prize she will draw? It may be that Maggins boy.

Miss Carrie Harmon, of Butler, Mo., and who is a grand daughter of Mrs. Caroline Swango, of this place, was recently married to Leonard Thompson, also of Butler. The Missouri papers speak in high terms of both bride and groom. James Harmon, the bride's father, has moved his residence to Warrensburg, Mo. We clip the following from the Butler Times: "The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Thompson, one of Bates county's wealthy and most influential families. He is an exemplary young man, and in winning the heart and hand of Miss Harmon, the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harmon, formerly of Summit township, heartily displayed good taste, and wedded a young lady in every way worthy his affection. This young couple start in life under the most favorable auspices for a bright, happy and prosperous career, and with the best wishes of a host of friends."

THIS HERALD extends congratulations.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldbaum, of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. It is for sale by John M. Rose.

DEMOCRATS INDICANT.

Judge Becker Says They Will Call Senator Holloway Down.

Judge W. M. Becker, of Winchester, ex-congressman from the Tenth district, and candidate for the Democratic nomination in that district again, was in the city yesterday on private business. To a representative of The Herald he said that he had no opposition so far for the nomination, and from what he could gather he would not have any.

The judge is very indignant at the action of State Senator Holloway in refusing to go into the Democratic senatorial caucus, and says the Democrats of Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery counties, which compose the district represented by Mr. Holloway, will most certainly hold an indignation meeting and request him to vote for Blackburn.

Such a meeting, the judge said, would be held by the Clark county Democrats one day this week, and they would speak in no uncertain tones to Mr. Holloway.

Judge Becker said that the Tenth district was now very close politically, but he believed that he could carry it by a safe majority over any Republican that might be put up.—Lexington Morning Herald.

An Old Soldier's Recommendation.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhea. Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this painful disease, or died, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bedding, Haley, Oregon. For sale by John M. Rose.

Changed Counties.

Living at the mouth of Sturgeon creek in Lee county, now in his 84th year, is James Brandrup, familiarly known as "Uncle Jimmie." Although he has always lived in the same house he has been a native of three different counties by a change of lines—Estill first, where he had to travel twenty-two miles to vote, and the elections were continued for three days; then Oswego, composed of Clay and Breathitt, and lastly Lee, in which he now lives. He has been a voter for sixty-seven years and voted for Gen. Jackson for president in 1842.

A daily newspaper, with all the news implies, 312 days in the year, and THE HERALD one year, all for $2.50, is one of the miracles of cheap journalism. But we have arranged with the publishers of the Louisville Evening Post for this great combination. If you want daily market reports, or full and fair reports from Washington or Frankfort, you should send your subscriptions to us at once. The Evening Post does not color its news, so you get all the news straight. The state news of the Evening Post is the best department in any daily paper. Mr. Editor: Please send enclosed 50 cents for THE HERALD six months for Miss Frances Sweeney, Maytown, Ky.

WIROLESS.

We have received from C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of United States and foreign patents, of Washington, D. C., a pamphlet recently published and copyrighted by them, entitled "A summary of foreign patent laws with information and advice about foreign patents, giving the cost of same in various countries."

The pamphlet is concise, well written, and contains in plain statement that which will be of interest to inventors, patentees and manufacturers. A copy will be sent free to any one addressing C. A. Snow & Co., patent lawyers, Washington D. C.

If you are indebted to this office on subscription, job work or advertising, you will oblige us very much by coming to the Captain's office and paying your dues. We need a little of the fifty cents about as bad as a hobo does a meal's victuals at times, and your promptness will relieve our distressed and be forever appreciated. Never mind the cash. Come on and we'll try and attend your wants.

A West Liberty dispatch in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday says: "Tom, Frank and Will Hopkins, brothers, while at work in a barn, quarreled over the division of their work. Will, the youngest, aged 16, attacked Tom with a pitch fork. Tom took the implement away from him and stabbed him six times with a knife. The injured boy is dying, and officers are on the track of the knife owner, who fled immediately after the cutting. It is thought he has gone to Texas, where he came from several weeks ago."

Tired Feeling and Pains Disappearing by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I was in terrible misery with rheumatism in my hips and lower limbs. I read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla that I thought I would try it and see if it would relieve me. When I commenced I could not sit up even turn over in bed without pain. One bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me.

Isaac Dingfelder, representing the wholesale dry goods and notion house of J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co., Louisville, has our thanks for the prettiest 1896 calendar we have seen anywhere.

"Ding," as he is familiarly known by his host of friends among the mountain merchants, needs no commendation at our hands. He is, indeed, the best known and the best liked of all men in the trade, and it is no wonder that he secures the lion's share of all the trade from this section.

By all means, make the first attempt to cure them by a simple course of Ramon's Tonic Liver Pills (and Pellets). Cal Davis, of Stillwater, met with an accident on Tuesday that may result fatally. He was hauling corn on a sled when the horse he was driving scared at something and ran away. Mr. Davis was thrown from the sled, which passed over his body and injured him internally to such an extent that his recovery is doubtful. Dr. Tanliss was called to see him, but we have not heard whether he attended him or not.

"The Lord, Thy God Will Send the Hornets."

Dr. Talmage Sunday chose for his discourse a theme that will appeal to most people, viz: The petty annoyances of life. His text was: "The Lord, Thy God, Will Send the Hornet."

These people are brought to our attention in the Bible, in the book of Ruth. Naomi went forth beautiful and with the finest of women in the land; but after awhile, she came back widowed and sick and poor. What did her friends do when she came to the city? They all went out, and instead of giving her common-sense consolation, what did they do? Read the story and you will find out. They "brought up their heads" and said, "Is this Naomi?" as much as to say, "How awful had you become!" When I entered the ministry I looked very pale for years, and every year, for four or five years, a hundred times a year, I was asked if I was any better.

Then I think these annoyances come on us to culture our patience. In the gymnasium you find upright parallel bars—upright bars, with holes over each other for pegs to be put in. Then the gymnast takes a peg in each hand and he begins to climb, one inch at a time, or two inches, and, getting his strength cultured, reaches after awhile the ceiling. And it seems to me that these annoyances in life are a moral gymnasium, each worriment a peg in which we can call higher and higher to our Christian attainment. We are not to see patience, but it can not be cultured in fair weather. Patience is a child of the storm. If you had match massed destruction through a block of storehouses. Catherine de Medici got her death from smelling a poisonous rose. Columbus, by stopping and asking for a piece of bread and a drink of water at a Franciscan convent, was led to the discovery of a new world. And there is an intimate connection between trifles and immensities, between nothings and everything.

Now, be careful to let none of these annoyances go through your soul unarranged. Counsel them to administer to your spiritual wealth. The Polycarp was condemned to be burned to death. The stake was ignited. He was fastened to it. The flames burst forth, and the flames kindled, but history tells us that the flames bent outward like the canopy of a ship in a strong breeze, so that the flames, instead of destroying Polycarp, were only a wall between him and the flames. He actually tried to destroy him with the pointed; the flames would not touch him. Well, my dear hearers, I want you to understand that by God's grace the flames of trial, instead of consuming your soul, are only a burning wall between you and the flames of blessing. God is going to fulfill to you the blessing and the promise, as he did to Polycarp. "When thou walkest through the fire thou shalt not be burned." Now, do you understand you will be able to stand in the fire, and you will bless God even for the hottest.

comes toward them readily, so that it may be easily chloroformed, the little terror, for example will bark his warning note, but will not attack the nervous creature to them. He will stand at a good distance and call aloud for assistance. Another example. Not only is one of the St. Bernard breed very much in the way in most houses, but it is really a terror to the children. Another example with food enough. On the contrary, a rat terrier should not be fed more than a small quantity of food. It will disappear for the establish which will be capacity as if by magic before the larger animal within. But a rat terrier is a loyal, obedient, and faithful to the proper guarding of the owner's home in these lawless days of anarchy, it is a dog worth the name.

CHAS. COOPER, Editor

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY Jan. 16, 1890

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce CHAS. T. BYRD, of Campbell, as a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk for Wolfe county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

LACONIC LIVE NEWS.

Four cities will contest for the National Democratic Convention. These are New York, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis. As the latter city may be considered out of the race, the one chosen will be of the other three. The New York influence, for a wonder, is now in dead earnest to have the convention held in New York City.

Louisville will make a master effort to secure the Democratic National Convention, and to that end is now raising a subscription. Over $20,000 has been subscribed so far, and the handsome way in which the "Falls City" entertained the Grand Army will work a wonderful influence in her favor. Here's a hopin' she will get what she wants.

The mayoralty muddle at Lexington goes no better fast. Both branches of the council have recognized Mr. Simrall as the lawful mayor, and the police are working under his instructions, but all the same Mayor Duncan still continues to occupy the office and expectorate in the cuspidor. Who will win is a question that can only be determined by the courts, and Mr. Duncan has brought suit to test the matter.

Representative Isaac Wilson, of Nelson county, died at Frankfort at 5 o'clock Saturday morning. He was a Democrat and a warm friend of Senator Blackburn, for whom he would have voted had the election taken place before his demise. Speaker Blanford promised to issue a writ of election for a successor to Mr. Wilson and send it out by the mail Saturday night, but from later reports it appears that the Hunter forces compelled him to delay doing so, in the hope that they may be able to force the election of a United States senator before another representative can be elected and qualify. It is a much mixed matter as to who will be the successor to Blackburn, and maybe he will himself be the man, though just at present it looks like the Republicans have the call.

Attorney Frank Prater, of Grayson, Carter county, was sentenced to jail for 90 days by Judge Barr, in the United States court Saturday, for assaulting and beating H. D. Gregory, the United States commissioner at Grayson. Prater was representing a client before the commissioner, and took offense at a ruling of the commissioner. After the court adjourned Prater demanded an apology, which Gregory declined to give. Prater then knocked Gregory down and bruised him up considerably. He was arrested, charged with obstructing justice. Governor Bradley, Lieutenant-Governor Worthington, Judge Holt and other prominent men petitioned Judge Barr to leave off the imprisonment of Prater, but he declined to do so. Prater is a prominent lawyer, and has served in the legislature.

It is a bit early to mention the prospective candidates for congress from the Tenth district, but we hear the matter discussed occasionally. W. M. Beckner, of Winchester, seems to be a favorite with the Democrats, so far as we are at present able to say, and his record in congress for the short time he was there is pointed to with pride by all who advocate his claims. He is known to be deeply interested in educational matters, to be an earnest and true friend to the interests of Eastern Kentucky and a very able man in the advocacy of every good work he undertakes, and all these things considered he may when the time comes be nominated by acclamation. Judge Beckner has done more for the education of the masses than any man, perhaps, in Kentucky, and this fact alone brings him in close touch with the sturdy sons of toil who inhabit our section. Knowing that he is interested in their enlightenment and the education of their children, these men will stand by him against all comers, and unless something unforeseen should happen between now and the time for the convention he will go before that body as the favorite by odds. The people want a man whom they know to be interested in their welfare and from what we have heard they think no man in the district is so in earnest as Judge Beckner.

Cuban affairs at the capitol were given renewed interest by the senate Saturday. Several resolutions, introduced in the senate, having for their purpose the recognition of the belligerency of the insurgents, are now before the committee. The discussion, although informal, indicated a unanimity in sentiment in favor of the Cubans. There is no longer doubt but that the recognition asked will be granted them, but there is a disagreement as to the proper time when it should be done. One thing is certain, that when it is done the committee will not be guided in any way by the consideration of any feeling of sympathy toward Spain, nor will it, as some seek to impress upon the committee, be turned from its course by the inevitable strained relations between this government and that at Madrid that will surely follow the recognition of the belligerent rights of the insurgents.

It is to be regretted by the friends of ex-Gov. John Young Brown that one of his last official acts in all probability cost him the United States senatorship. Brilliant, oratorical and statesman-like he would have been an honor to Kentucky. But, as the Louisville Times has truly said, the ex-governor has forever ruined his political prospects in Eastern Kentucky. Six sound money Democrats of the Tenth congressional district, who for personal reasons would have gladly compromised on him for senator, are now arrayed against him teeth and toe-nail forever, all because he tried to traduce and slander the good name of Register of Lands Swango. It is to be pitied that such a promising future was blasted in an attempt to appease his own wrath on a fellow state official.

The very great honor of christening the new battle ship Kentucky, which is to be the pride of Uncle Sam's navy, has been conferred on Miss Harriet B. Richardson, of Lexington, by Secretary of the Navy Hilary A. Herbert. Miss Richardson returned a few days ago from a visit to her sister, the wife of Colonel James K. Farnley, of the British navy yard. En route home Miss Richardson stopped in Washington a few days with friends. A bottle of champagne which will be used instead of champagne.

Through A. P. A. influence the committee appointed by the house to wait on the President ministers have been them to avoid the blessings of Providence upon that body, and the President's church was left out. The senate, however, will make no such discrimination, as the priest will take his regular seat with the other ministers.

Levi Kash, in a letter to the editor of this paper from Cogswell, Ky., states that Festus Kash, of that place, has a gripper.

Misses Clara Pieratt, Cora Combs and Eddie Daniels, and Mrs. Stephen Pieratt, of Hazel, were visiting in Hazel Green, Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. Taubee, of this place, was called to see Mrs. De Steve Evanson, of near Maytown, a few days ago. She has fever but is doing nicely.

J. R. DeBussk left last Sunday morning for Rothwell and vicinity. He will probably engage in teaching for the remainder of the winter.

John Wilson (Logston) on Wednesday weighed a hog for W. T. Swango which tipped the beam at 567 pounds, a pretty fair pig for this section.

Dave Rose left here Sunday night for some point in the west, and his wife has gone to the home of her mother, Mrs. Hollon, who lives on Holly.

Mrs. Barney Blankenship and her mother-in-law, Mrs. William Blankenship, and Miss Mary Tyler, paid our office a pleasant call Monday.

Henry Pieratt is in receipt of a fresh stock of goods and in next week's issue of this paper will formally invite you to inspect both goods and prices.

Among the good farmers of this section is our friend, E. F. Ceell, of Grassy. He has some 2,000 bushels of corn in the crib and will utilize it in feeding 40 head of young cattle.

Little Ella Kash is agent for the New York Ledger, and in the course of ten days will be prepared to furnish lovers of light literature regularly with that popular story paper.

For the next thirty days you can secure the Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer and HAZEL GREEN HERALD for 12 months at only $1.00. Don't delay, but send your $1 to this office at once.

Mrs. Lillie McLi, who has been visiting her mother and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Day, and other relatives and friends here since before the holidays, left for her home at Torment Monday.

Mort Swango had good presented John Combs with a fine Bernard pup of one color. He weighs right on to a hundred pounds and is only nine months old. Try will drive him and the goat double harness in the spring.

Utilizing Old Magazines. A hint of the most commendable use to be made of old magazines is contained in the report of the Librarian of the Leo Apgar public library. All the magazines that are not needed for binding and other uses are taken apart and the illustrations cut out and placed on cards of one sheet each. These pictures are classified and form sets for illustrating lessons in geography, history and literature. The pictures of artists and their works are valuable to another class of students, the first are of great assistance to the teachers in the public schools. These fancy pictures are taken to the hospital to make the patients smile.

From the number of old coins found about the ruins of the old William Trimble residence, recently torn down, it is supposed that the founder of Hazel Green was a connoisseur in rare coins. Jimmie Brown recently found a silver piece, quite thin and about the size of a dime, which is supposed to be an old Virginia levy, 121 cents. It bears date of 17—, the two latter figures being indistinct. Jimmie has found two or three coins about the same spot, all of them being quite old.

Everywhere We Go We find some one who has been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and people on all hands are praising this great medicine for what it has done for them and their friends. Taken in time Hood's Sarsaparilla prevents serious illness by keeping the blood pure and all the organs in a healthy condition. It is the great blood purifier.

Hood's Pills become the favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. 25 cents per box.

If the person who mailed a one dollar bill and forty cents in stamps at Campton on Wednesday, addressing the same to this office, will kindly furnish his or her name—not for publication but as a guarantee of good faith—and kindly inform us as to how the funds are to be applied we will gladly enter the proper credit. As there was no writing what ever accompanying the cash we are at a loss to know as to whom we shall give credit.

Now see that your blood is pure. Good health follows the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is the one great blood purifier.

Henry Pieratt will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better for a mass of nice plus feet.

Look at the date after your name and pay up what you owe.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10, 1894.

There is no excitement among the silver men in congress over the reporting of a bill for the free coinage of silver to the senate as a substitute for the house bill. This may be because it was well known from the first that such action would be taken, or it may be because of the general knowledge that the substitute cannot possibly become a law; at any rate, it is true. It will pass the senate by a decisive majority, notwithstanding the shrewd move of Senator Chandler, who has passed as a special friend of silver, in introducing a bill providing for a popular bank by the sale of interest bearing postal notes at all money order post offices, which he has given notice of his intention to offer as a substitute for the free coinage bill. But there are silver men who regard it as a mere waste of time to put the bill through the senate. They say that Speaker Reed would not give the bill a chance to get through the house, even if two thirds of that body wanted to vote for it, and, of course, all the world knows that President Cleveland would take especial pleasure in vetoing a free coinage bill, should it by any possibility ever succeed in reaching him.

The members of the Venezuelan boundary commission are engaged in the preliminary work of their investigation. The headquarters of the commission will be in Washington, and it may be that its work can all be done without leaving the city, but circumstances will decide that. Regardless of the personal convenience of its members, the commission will endeavor to render a decision which will forever settle what has been a troublesome question for more than half a century. So far the attitude of everybody concerned seems to be to aid the commission in its search after the correct boundary line between British Guiana and Venezuela.

The sessions of the house this week have been very short, most of the work done being in the committee rooms.

A member of the house committee on territories said this week: "No one can tell at this time what will be done by congress, but it is my opinion that enabling acts will be passed at this session authorizing statehood for New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma, and that Indian Territory will be placed under a regular territorial form of government. My opinion is based upon those expressed by other members of the house."

In a speech strongly attacking the supreme court decision against the income tax, which he declared was a "matter of surprise—surprise to every intelligent lawyer in the country, and especially to those of us in congress, who were engaged in formulating the legislation," Senator Vest used some strong language against the domination of the gold kings, and in favor of the free coinage of silver. He ridiculed the idea that there is enough gold outside of what is held by the banks to take up the $100,000,000 bond issue which has been advertised by Secretary Carlisle, and concluded by saying: "The conflict is irrepressible. If we are to have the gold standard and the domination of the national banks, so to the people and have them rivet the chains. But I believe the people will respond against wiping out one half of the money of the world, and in favor of striking down the financial despotism that is upon us."

According to Senator Mills, of Texas, the Republicans adopted the Democratic idea of a tariff for revenue only, when they put the tariff bill through the house that is now in the senate, but neither Mr. Mills, nor any other Democratic leader, has announced his intention to vote for the bill. If it represents Democratic ideas, the Democrats are not supporting those ideas with any degree of unanimity, although it is expected that several Democratic senators will vote for the bill, now that the Republicans have decided not to amend it, but Mr. Mills isn't one of them.

Several representatives of free Cuba are here trying to get the belligerency of the revolutionists recognized by this government. They have documentary evidence in plenty showing the strength of the Cubans, and the little news that has come from Cuba this week has been greatly in their favor, but they are not making the progress they expected. They get all the individual assurances of sympathy they want, but officially the administration and congress are dumb on the subject. It is now certain that unless the Cubans force things sooner by driving the Spaniards out of Havana, the administration isn't going to recognize them, unless directed by the senate. The senate has passed a bill to that effect, but it has not yet reached the president.

be adopted with a whirl if a chance was given, but Speaker Reed has positively declined to recognize anybody to offer any such resolution, unless it comes as a report from the committee on foreign affairs. There are some very ugly rumors floating around Washington, to the effect that a powerful lobby well supplied with Spanish gold is working on members of the administration and of congress to prevent recognition of the Cubans as long as possible, in order to give the Spaniards more time in which to try to put down the revolt. It wouldn't be the first time Spanish money had been spent in Washington to influence official opinion.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds. It opens the secretions, relieves the lungs and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. If freely used as soon as the cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it greatly lessens the severity of the attack and has often cured in a single day what would have been a severe cold. ST. PAUL, MINN., September 7, 1894.
EUREKA CHEMICAL AND MFG. CO., La Crosse, Wis.
Dear Sir:—I have been a tobacco smoker for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Bacon Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Bacon Cure." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Bacon-Cure" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly,
